Jonathan Taylor creates high-impact one-of-one artwork for businesses, events, public spaces and personal commissions. His work spans commercial murals, live event experiences, wearable art, custom objects and community-centered installations.

What Jonathan Can Create

Commercial Murals	Restaurants, retail, venues, offices, storefronts and branded interiors.
Live Event + Brand Art	Festivals, activations, launches, grand openings, conventions and private events.
Wearable + Fashion Art	One-of-one garments, statement pieces and red-carpet-ready custom artwork.
Airbrush + Custom Objects	Portrait work, helmets, shoes, jackets and specialty surfaces.
Custom Rugs	Graphic, character and concept-driven rugs made as functional artwork.
Community + Memorial Art	Public-facing work, cultural storytelling and meaningful legacy pieces.

Why Brands & Organizations Hire Custom Art

Custom art can turn a blank wall, garment or event footprint into a shareable visual experience. Jonathan's range allows one creative partner to support murals, live art, custom fashion and specialty objects without forcing every project into the same style.
